Migrating a Blackboard Course to Canvas,

Adding a Module Structure to your Canvas Course,

Copying a Course to another Course within Canvas

Migrate a Blackboard Course to Canvas
Please send the specific course IDs of the course to be copied and the destination course to DigitalLearning@newhaven.edu "Copy Blackboard Course to Canvas Fall 2020" in the subject line. (Request example: Copy from Blackboard COMM-1101-20-S20 to COMM-1101-01-F20)

Add a Module Structure to your Canvas Course
We suggest using the module structure to make content easy to find and provide a consistent student experience across the University.
Add the 7-module or 15-module structure using the instructions posted on myCharger>Faculty Resources>Technology Training>Canvas section: Add a Module Structure to your Course Instructions
OR, we will add a module structure to your course upon receiving a request from you. Please send the specific course ID to DigitalLearning@newhaven.edu. (Request example: Add the 7-module structure to COMM-1101-01-F20)

Copy a Course to Another Course within Canvas
Copy a Course to Another Course within Canvas using the instructions posted on myCharger>Faculty Resources>Technology Training>Canvas section: Copy a Canvas Course or Selected Material into an Existing Course Instructions
OR, we will copy this content to your Fall 2020 course upon receiving a request from you. Please send the specific course IDs to DigitalLearning@newhaven.edu. (Request example: Canvas Copy from COMM-1101-20-S20 to COMM-1101-01-F20)

Important: Publishing your Course and Students enrollment
Canvas courses are unpublished and students do not have access to them until you publish a course. Unpublished courses provide faculty opportunities to modify courses and open each course when they are ready. You must publish your course by the start date of the term.

Find UNH training events on myCharger>Faculty Resources page>Faculty Training and Development section and Canvas training events on the Canvas Global Navigation Menu HELP icon (?) Training Portal link.
