CAMPUS CONNECTORS ORIENTATION TRANSITION LEADERS

MORE INFO IN YOUR EMAIL
SCAN THE CODE TO APPLY

*graduate students only

OGISL's future Orientation Transition Leaders and Campus Connectors will be the face of the University of New Haven and vital to the success of Charger Days. They should have excellent customer service skills, the willingness to speak to strangers, the ability to work quickly under pressure, and prior volunteer or student leadership experience.

Both the Orientation Transition Leader and Campus Connector positions may be filled by a graduate student: domestic or international. These positions require attendance on campus August 17 (orientation training), 18 (orientation training), 21 (Graduate Student Welcome Day), and 22 (International Student Welcome Day).

Campus Connectors will begin their roles this summer, virtually connecting with incoming students. Campus Connectors will continue in their roles during orientation training, at orientation, and throughout the fall semester. Orientation Transition Leaders roles will include orientation and training. Both positions are unpaid and offer many perks, listed below.

Application Deadline extended to July 5, 2023, 11:59 pm.
